2026 Investment Adviser Compliance Calendar

By: Diana M. Alsabe, Thomas H. Bilodeau, III

SEC-registered investment advisers are subject to an array of reporting and compliance obligations in order to maintain registered investment adviser status. The following compliance calendar (“Compliance Calendar”) is designed to primarily address the potential reporting and compliance obligations applicable to a small or mid-sized private fund adviser arising under the federal securities laws. Large-scale investment advisers, as defined by the SEC, are subject to heightened reporting and compliance obligations that are not covered in full by this Compliance Calendar. Unless otherwise provided in the below Compliance Calendar, all statutory references are to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and the regulations promulgated thereunder (“Advisers Act”). See specific discussion of the scope and limitations of this Compliance Calendar at the end of this article. Capitalized terms are defined at the end of this blog.

Annual Considerations (No fixed dates)

- Deliver annual privacy notice to applicable clients.
- Renew SEC Form D filings on or before the first anniversary of the prior year’s filed notice, where appropriate.
- Review, test, and update (where appropriate) compliance policies and procedures.
- Deliver Adviser’s code of ethics or amendments thereof to supervised persons and obtain their acknowledgement of receipt.
- Review all Marketing and Solicitation (including any performance reporting) materials to confirm in accordance with regulations.
