

Global Capabilities

Rich May's capabilities span the globe through our active membership in Ally Law, founded in 1990 as the International Alliance of Law Firms. Rich May, P.C. has been a part of Ally Law for nearly a decade.

Through Ally Law, Rich May is affiliated with over 70 firms and 2,800 lawyers in more than 50 countries, including every major business center worldwide. In concrete terms, our Ally Law membership gives our clients the ability to quickly gain access to a deep understanding of local law and business culture virtually anywhere in the world.

Ally Law member firms are committed to delivering excellent services to each and every client. Member firms are required to meet stringent quality standards, and Ally Law regularly evaluates client satisfaction. Also, Ally Law has been consistently ranked as a Leading Global Network by the Chambers & Partners Global Guide.

Ally Law firms offer a large range of services including corporate law and securities, environmental law, intellectual property, employment, benefits, government, litigation and tax, health care, leisure, hospitality, real property, construction, retail, and technology.
