November 20, 2020 | Firm News

Attorney Danielle Justo Presents at AllyLaw SuperConference

By: Rich May

On November 19, 2020, Rich May attorney Danielle Justo spoke at AllyLaw's SuperConference. Presenting as part of a panel titled Women in Law, Danielle was joined by Ilene Jaroslaw of Phillips Nizer and Paola Sangiovanni of Gitti and Partners. Together the panel discussed the importance of mentoring and sponsoring young lawyers, responding to unequal treatment, and dealing with professional exclusion in the legal field.

About AllyLaw:

Celebrating their 30th anniversary this year, Ally Law is a major global network of 70+ independent law firms and 2800+ lawyers from 45+ countries. Ally Law members are carefully selected based on practice expertise, reputation and commitment to client service. Each are market leaders in their own jurisdictions, with a dedication to the responsibility of good corporate citizenship. For more information about AllyLaw, visit their website.

Related Attorneys

Danielle Justo

©2026 Rich May, P.C. All Rights Reserved