CEO of Rich May client Definitive Healthcare named Executive of the Year

By: Rich May

Congratulations to Jason Krantz, CEO of longtime client Definitive Healthcare, on being named the “RSM Middle Market Executive of the Year” by the Boston Business Journal.

This new awards program honors individuals in three categories – Executive, Innovator, and Deal. The honors are awarded based on nominations from the members of the Massachusetts business community, and criteria such as creative leadership, innovative ideas, risk taking, and growth strategies.

?Jason stood out for his ability to effectively lead the company from startup to industry leader; for managing acquisition and overseeing equity deals. Additionally, his leadership has been evident through the best workplace awards the company has received and recognition for the company?s consistent and outstanding growth over several years,? said Carolyn Jones of the Boston Business Journal.
