Danielle Justo Named Managing Director at Rich May, P.C.

By: Rich May

Danielle is the first woman elected to equity shareholder, chair of a department, and now as a Managing Director of Rich May. She represents clients in a variety of commercial real estate matters, as well as estate planning and probate matters and succession planning for family businesses. She has served for over eight years on the Board of Trustees of Federal Furnace Cranberry Company (a member of the Ocean Spray Cooperative). Under her leadership, FFCC successfully sold the 800-acre, 20-bog cranberry and solar family farm. She is a member of CREW (Commercial Real Estate Women), and serves on the Old Colony YMCA Board of Governors. She was awarded a JD/MBA from Boston College (2002) and a Bachelor of Arts (Economics and English, Cum Laude) from the University of Pennsylvania (1998).
