

April 25, 2023 | Firm News

Eric Krathwohl Presents at 2023 Ally Law Conference in Sydney, Australia

By: Rich May

Rich May attorney Eric Krathwohl recently presented on law firm sustainability and diversity efforts at the Ally Law Annual General Meeting in Sydney, Australia. Mr. Krathwohl, formerly Treasurer and a member of the Ally Law Executive Board, described Rich May's efforts to "green" its electricity consumption and otherwise embrace practices that reduce resource consumption. He also explained how Rich May's commitment was driven both by personal values and business considerations where a significant portion of the firm's client base is involved with energy efficiency and renewable energy. Mr. Krathwohl also described the firm's efforts to grow a more diverse workforce and to continue and expand Rich May's collegial, collaborative and welcoming culture. The theme of the 2023 Annual General Meeting was a sustainable future in the legal industry.

© 2022 by Rich May, P.C. All rights reserved

Related Services

Energy, Renewables & Regulated Industries

Related Attorneys

Eric J. Krathwohl