Habitat for Humanity of Greater Plymouth Celebrates 25th Anniversary

By: Rich May

Rich May attorney Danielle Justo attended the Gala in celebration of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Plymouth's 25th Anniversary. As a former board member and site committee chair, she has assisted with eight builds in Plymouth, Kingston and Carver. Over the years, Danielle also obtained Community Preservation Act and Pinehills Affordable Housing Charitable Trust grants, donations of land, and other town permitting and state affordable housing approvals. She now sits on the organization's Advisory Council and continues to assist in pro bono work, as well as maintaining strategic corporate relationships. In particular, the Pinehills Trust has been an amazing partner in supporting the mission of providing decent, affordable housing to working families in the Greater Plymouth area. Rich May congratulates Habitat for Humanity on this ongoing and important work!
