

November 8, 2019 | Firm News, Real Estate

Rich May Attorney Danielle Justo Named Among Boston Real Estate Times' 10 Outstanding Women of 2019

By: Rich May

This week, attorney Danielle Justo was honored by Boston Real Estate Times as one of the group's 10 Outstanding Women of 2019. The honor recognizes the women playing a major role in all sectors of the Boston real estate market, from development and construction to legal and finance. The group specifically recognized Attorney Justo for legal excellence in the real estate community, particularly for her work on deals related to the development of the Lynn Gearworks site. In addition to her professional contributions, Boston Real Estate Times also recognized Attorney Justo's community involvement, especially her work with Habitat of Humanity of Greater Plymouth.

For more on the honor, click here.

Related Services

Commercial Real Estate

Related Attorneys

Danielle Justo

©2026 Rich May, P.C. All Rights Reserved