

September 12, 2018 | Firm News

Rich May Attorney Eric Krathwohl and Client R.H. White Company Ride Pan Mass Challenge

By: Rich May

On August 3-4, 2018, Eric J. Krathwohl, a Rich May, P.C. Managing Director, joined 7,000 other cyclists and hundreds of volunteers to participate in the two-day, 192 mile Pan Mass Challenge.

Eric was part of Team Cyclosaurass, which largely consisted of employees of R.H. White Company. Team Cyclosaurass has raised over $50,000 to date for patient care and cancer research at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. This year, the PMC expects to raise over $50,000,000 overall.

The ride started at 5am on Saturday in Sturbridge, MA. The riders pedaled south in hot humid conditions that cooled off by lunchtime to steady rain that lasted through the rest of the day. The second day was a beautiful, sunny ride from Bourne to Provincetown, followed by a refreshing ferry ride back to Boston.

Related Attorneys

Eric J. Krathwohl

©2026 Rich May, P.C. All Rights Reserved

Team Mary Courage
Colossuras rides for