Rich May Attorneys Yana Zheng and James B. Heffernan Speak at American Chinese United Association Inaugural Opening Ceremony

By: Rich May

Rich May attorneys Yana Zheng and James Heffernan spoke in support of the American Chinese United Association (ACUA) Massachusetts Chapter at its Inaugural Opening Ceremony on June 1st, 2022. The ACUA MA Chapter is a non-profit organization serving the Chinese American and Chinese community in Massachusetts, aiming to advocate for and support Chinese Americans against anti-Asian hate and racism. ACUA strives to engage the Chinese and Asian American community and beyond in dialogue for the protection and advancement of rights and equity of all Americans. Rich May is proud to work with ACUA in the development of the Asian American Community and the fight for racial equality. Congratulations to everyone at the American Chinese United Association MA Chapter on a wonderful opening ceremony for this phenomenal cause.
