Rich May client Suntera Global acquires Socium

By: Rich May

Rich May client Suntera Global, an Isle of Man based company providing fund, corporate and private wealth services across multiple jurisdictions, acquired Socium, a specialist provider of high-quality and boutique fund administration services to private equity, private credit, venture capital and real estate focused fund managers from its headquarters in New Jersey, and with additional offices in California and Arizona.

More information can be found in Suntera's official announcement of the transaction.

Rich May, P.C. attorneys Stephen M. Kane, Arvid von Taube and Matthew Sweet assisted Suntera Global in all aspects of the sale through closing, including the preparation and negotiation of the purchase agreement and all ancillary documents.
