

February 3, 2022 | Firm News

Rich May Client WorkCare Acquires AllOne Health's Occupational Health Division

By: Rich May

Rich May, P.C.'s long-time client WorkCare, Inc. completed the asset purchase of the occupational health segment of AllOne Health Resources, Inc.

WorkCare provides innovative employee health management solutions to employers in all types of industries under the direction of occupational medicine physicians, industry subject matter experts and information technology professionals.

AllOne Health's occupational health division has more than 100 employees serving organizations throughout the U.S. and in 50 other countries. The division will continue to maintain its office in Wilmington, Massachusetts, further expanding WorkCare's geographic footprint. WorkCare will now employ over 600 people, including clinicians and allied health professionals; operations and administrative personnel; and a dedicated IT team.

The announcement of the transaction can be found on WorkCare's website.

Rich May attorneys Stephen M. Kane, Arvid von Taube and Matthew Sweet assisted WorkCare in all aspects of the acquisition, including negotiation of the terms of the transaction, the asset purchase agreement and all ancillary documents.

©2026 Rich May, P.C. All Rights Reserved