Rich May Congratulates Client Green Acres Investment on the Completion of their Bridgewater Subdivision

By: Rich May

Rich May congratulates our client Green Acres Investments in their completion of their subdivision in Bridgewater, Massachusetts. Green Acres is an international property development company who specializes in working with investment partners and financial institutions. They promise to "bring together Investors and Project Owners, home owners, and workers" to ensure "high quality products, excellent services and high standards" in all of their endeavors. Here is an example one of their amazing homes.
