Rich May Congratulates Danielle Justo on her Selection as Top Women of Law Honoree

By: Rich May

Congratulations to attorney Danielle Justo who was selected for inclusion in the Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly 2024 Top Women of Law. Top Women of Law honors the achievements and contributions of exceptional women lawyers who are pioneers, educators, trailblazers and role models. Honorees were selected by representatives of Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly and by members of the legal community.

Dani is a member and shareholder of the firm, and the co-chair of the firm's Commercial Real Estate Practice Group. Dani represents lenders, Certified Development Companies and business owners for SBA 54 Loans and 7(a) Loans. She has been named a "New England Super Lawyer" by Thomson Reuters Super Lawyers from 2021-2023, was named a "Top Lawyer" by Boston Magazine from 2021-2023, and named to the Boston Real Estate Times' list of 10 Outstanding Women of 2019. Dani is also heavily involved in her local community; she is a Trustee of Federal Furnace Cranberry Company in Carver, a member of the Ocean Spray cooperative, as well as a certified assessor and a former member of the Board of Assessors for the Town of Stoughton.

Additionally, Dani leads the Women's Committee at Rich May, where she mentors female attorneys at the firm. Dani was nominated to Top Women of Law because of her outstanding leadership on Rich May's Commercial Real Estate team, involvement with the Women's Committee, and involvement with her local community.

This impressive recognition comes as no surprise to her colleagues and clients. Congratulations Dani!
