

Trademark & Copyright

OVERVIEW

Rich May, P.C.'s Trademark & Copyright practice group is dedicated to serving the needs of businesses and individuals looking to protect their valuable brands and works of authorship.

We help service providers and producers of goods protect their brand names internationally, nationally and locally through trademark registration and important ongoing maintenance. We also provide a range of expertise in entertainment and intellectual property law, including new media, film, television and publishing. We have experience in the financing, production and distribution of film and television projects, representing a broad range of clients including production companies, writers, directors, artists, animators, multimedia and software producers, distributors, book authors and publishers.

We provide legal and strategic guidance to clients in all aspects of the following:

- Negotiation and drafting of contracts for the financing, production and distribution of film, television and video projects
- Acquisition and licensing of literary, life story and other proprietary rights
- Development and launch of multimedia websites
- Merchandising and licensing
- Traditional print publishing and e-publishing
- Trademark and copyright domestic and international protection
- Fair use evaluation and rights analysis
- First Amendment review, including defamation and privacy claims
