Team Rich May Wins 2017 Boston Tennis Tour Championship

By: Rich May

After a slow start to the season, Team Rich May came out strong in front of a packed house at Longwood Cricket Club in Chestnut Hill, and claimed the 2017 Boston Tennis Tour championship match 3-0.

This is the first year that Rich May, P.C. has sponsored a team in the Boston Tennis Tour, formerly known as the Boston Pro Tennis League. The Tour consists of current and former professional tour players, international Davis Cup players, and top current and former collegiate players from around the country.

Rich May attorney Arvid von Taube, a fifth year player on the Tour, competed on Team Rich May this season and hopes to again in 2018.
